

Please join us for the upcoming
Lemko heritage art exhibit:

From Black Diamonds to Church Art:
The Uncommon Work of the Coal Country Realist
Nicholas Bervinchak

Born in 1903 in the northeastern Pennsylvania coal region to parents from the Lemko village of Rzepedz, Nicholas Bervinchak was a coal miner-turned-artist whose work became displayed worldwide, including in the Whitney Museum of Art, National Gallery of Art, Smithsonian Institution and White House.

Opening date: Sunday, September 27, 2015

TIME: 1-5 PM, TALK BY GUEST CURATOR MIKE BURYK AT 2PM, FOLLOWED BY WINE AND CHEESE RECEPTION

Fee: $15 (reduced price of $10 for OOL members – CONSIDER JOINING TODAY!)

Location: Ukrainian Museum & Library in Stamford, 161 Glenbrook Rd, Stamford, CT 06902

Organized by the Ukrainian Lemko Museum in coordination with the Lemko Research Foundation, Ukrainian Museum & Library of Stamford and Ukrainian Museum in New York City

For more information, contact
Diana Howansky Reilly at diana_reilly@hotmail.com or 347-992-9038